Turning faith into transformation

Our faith is powerful. Our prayers make a difference. But now it is time for us – the global church – to practise what we pray.

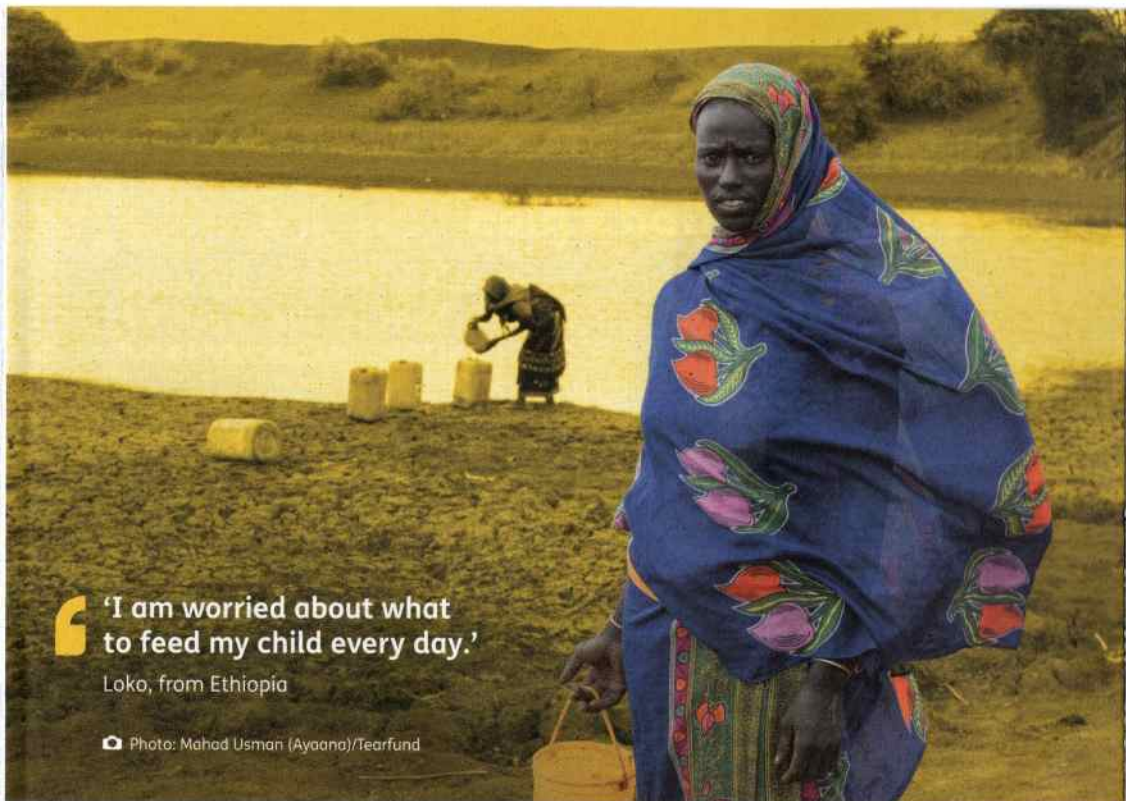

The world's biggest problems are getting bigger. Conflict is rife, climate change is displacing millions of people, and one in ten are still living in extreme poverty. This is not God's plan.

But with your support, our unique Church and Community Transformation training can help those facing extreme crises. It helps communities recognise the resources God has given them, to overcome poverty from within and build greater resilience, with immediate effect.

‘We can visibly see that people are trying their best to better their life. This transformation is an answer to our prayers, it is the result of the training we had with Tearfund and we thank God for that.’

Pastor Ngendahimana Sarthiel, Burundi

'I am worried about what to feed my child every day.'

Loko, from Ethiopia

Loko lives with her family in Borena, Ethiopia. The country has been affected by its worst drought in 40 years. They used to have livestock, but now cutting down trees to sell firewood is their last resort. 'This is a final option, we must not die sitting,' Loko explains.

You can help us bring life-changing training to communities around the world who face similar challenges to Loko's; training that's been shown to help people increase their income, have greater access to food and medicine, and feel better equipped to cope with unexpected events like long-term drought.

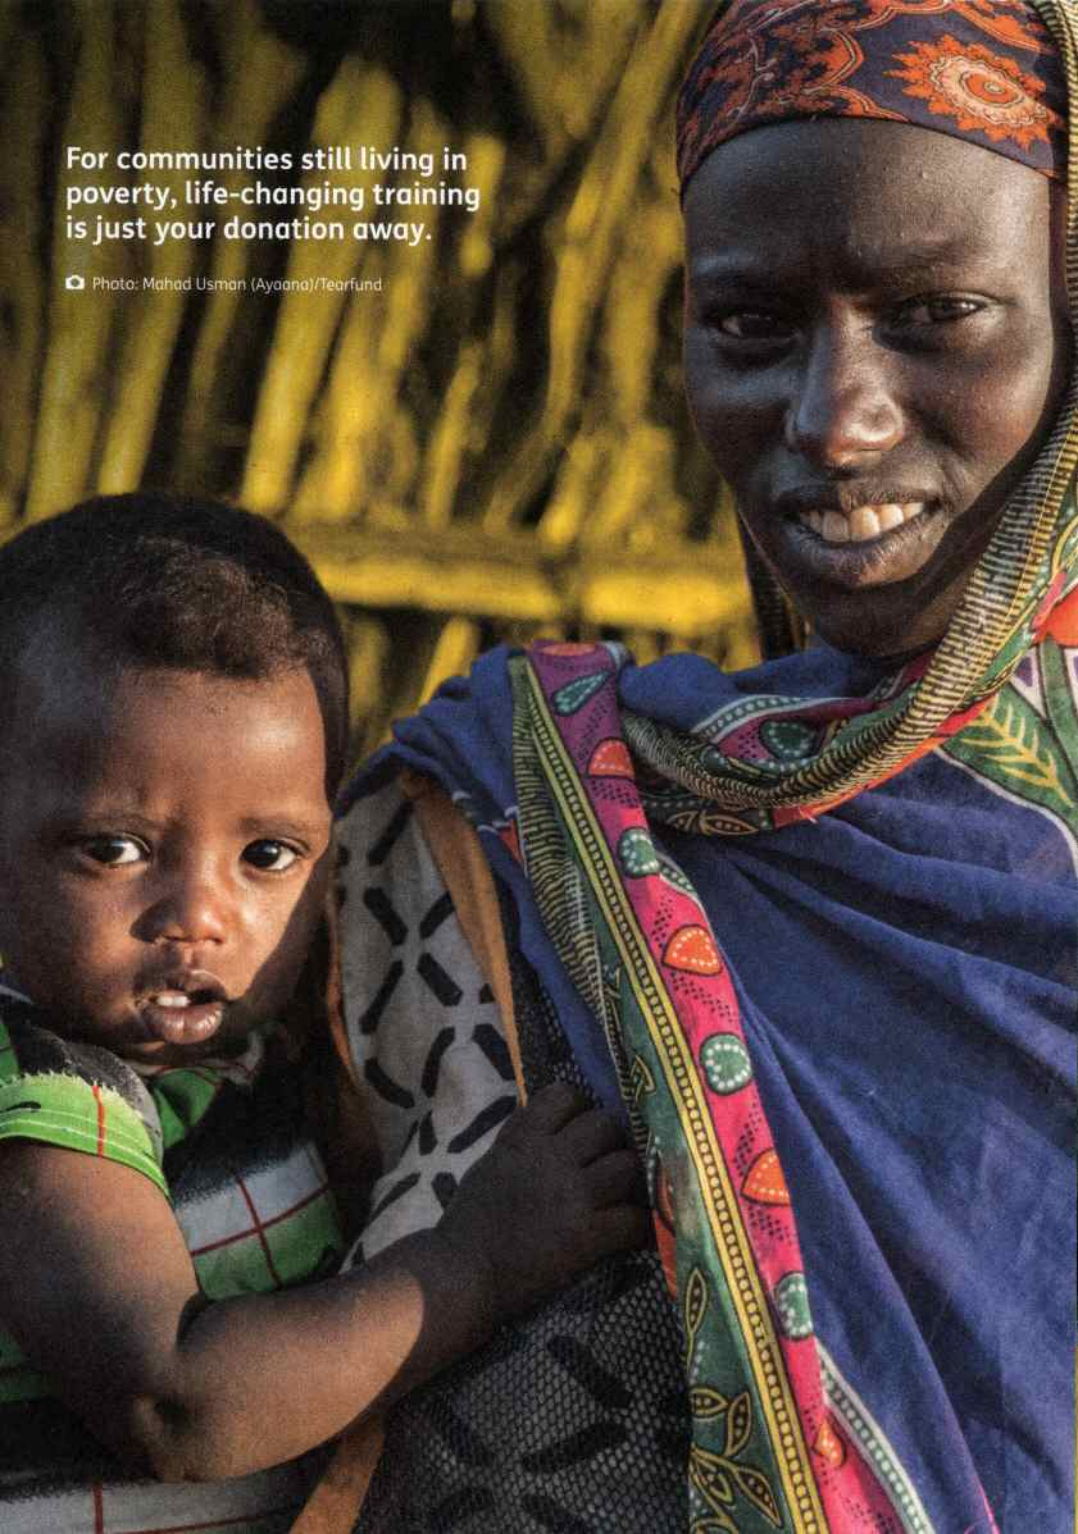

Transferring knowledge helps to break a cycle of need, where communities are no longer dependent on external help to break free from poverty. Instead, it taps into the God-given potential already within.

Poverty is not God's plan

Poverty is the cause of hardship for millions of people across the world, but God wants them to thrive and flourish. Together, as the church, we can be at the heart of his plan to end suffering. We are called on to put our prayers into practice and bring an end to extreme poverty.

Tearfund is as passionate about this as we are about Jesus. With your help, we will continue working through local churches to empower and equip communities worldwide. We won't stop until everyone has the opportunity to fulfil their God-given potential.
